ASD Financial Services Corp.
(A Wholly-Owned Subsidiary of American Brokerage & Investment Group, Inc.)

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of ASD Financial Services Corp. These financial statements and supplementary information referred to below are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements and supplementary information based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of ASD Financial Services Corp. NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
SEPTEMBER 30, 2006

NOTE 1. NATURE OF OPERATIONS AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Operations

ASD Financial Services Corp. (the "Company"), formerly known as ASD Brokerage and Investment, Inc., operates as a broker-dealer in securities and is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Florida Division of Securities, the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., and the National Futures Association. Consequently, its record keeping is in accordance with the rules and regulations prescribed by these agencies. The Company is a wholly-owned subsidiary of American Brokerage & Investment Group, Inc. (the "Parent"), a financial services holding company.

As a nonclearing broker-dealer, the Company does not carry security accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer funds or securities and is therefore exempt from the provisions of Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

The Company has incurred net losses and negative cash flows since its inception in October of 2002. The Parent made an additional capital contribution of $600,000 during 2006. Management has implemented a business plan to obtain new customers, increase revenues and reduce costs. The efficacy of such plan is uncertain. The Company's ability to continue as a going concern is dependent upon capital or debt financing from its Parent and, ultimately, upon the Company's ability to operate on a profitable basis.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers cash and cash equivalents to include highly liquid investments with purchased maturities of three months or less.

Commissions

Commission revenues and related expenses have been accrued on a trade date basis.

Clearing arrangements

The Company has an agreement with Pershing, LLC to provide execution and clearing services on behalf of its customers on a fully disclosed basis. All customer records and accounts are maintained by Pershing, LLC.

NOTE 1. NATURE OF OPERATIONS AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Furniture, Fixtures and Office Equipment

Furniture, fixtures and office equipment, including computer equipment and software, are recorded at cost less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the respective assets ranging up to seven years.

Income Taxes

Income taxes are accounted for under the asset and liability method. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax basis and operating loss and tax credit carryforwards. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date.

Accounting Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at September 30, 2006 and revenues and expenses during the year then ended. The actual outcome of the estimates could differ from the estimates made in the preparation of the financial statements.

NOTE 1. NATURE OF OPERATIONS AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

New Accounting Pronouncements

Accounting Changes and Error Corrections

In May 2005, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Statement of Accounting Standards No. 154, Accounting Changes and Error Corrections ("SFAS 154") which supersedes Accounting Principles Board ("APB") Opinion No. 20, Accounting Changes and SFAS No. 3, Reporting Accounting Changes in Interim Financial Statements. SFAS 154 changes the requirements for the accounting for and reporting of changes in accounting principles. The statement requires the retroactive application to prior periods' financial statements of changes in accounting principles, unless it is impracticable to determine either the period specific effects or the cumulative effect of the change. SFAS 154 does not change the guidance for reporting the correction of an error in previously issued financial statements or the change in an accounting estimate. SFAS 154 is effective for accounting changes and corrections of errors made in fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2005. The Company does not expect the adoption of SFAS 154 to have a material impact on its results of operations and financial condition.

NOTE 2. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS WITH OFF-BALANCE-SHEET RISK

In the normal course of business, the Company encounters economic risk, mainly comprised of credit risk and market risk. Credit risk arises from the customer securities activities which are transacted on either cash or margin basis. These transactions may expose the Company to off-balance-sheet risk in the event the customer is unable to fulfill its contracted obligations and margin requirements are not sufficient to fully cover losses which customers may incur. In the event the customer fails to satisfy its obligations, the Company may be required to purchase or sell financial instruments at prevailing market prices in order to fulfill those obligations. In connection with its clearing arrangements, the Company is required to guarantee the performance of its customers in meeting their contracted obligations.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 2. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS WITH OFF-BALANCE-SHEET RISK (CONTINUED)

As a securities broker and dealer, the Company is engaged in various brokerage and trading activities with domestic and international investors. The Company attempts to minimize credit risk associated with these activities by monitoring customer credit exposure and collateral values on a daily basis and requiring additional collateral to be deposited with or returned to the Company when necessary. The credit risk is also minimized by the careful monitoring of customer accounts by the clearing firm.

At various times during the year, the Company had cash deposits in excess of federally insured limits.

NOTE 3. NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENT

The Company, as a registered broker-dealer in securities, is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1) which requires that the Company maintain "Net Capital" equal to the greater of $30,000 or 6 2/3% of "Aggregate Indebtedness", as defined. At September 30, 2006, the Company's "Net Capital" was $388,800 and "Required Net Capital" was $30,000. The ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital should not exceed 15 to 1. At September 30, 2006, the ratio of "Aggregate Indebtedness" to "Net Capital" was .25 to 1.

One of the contracts expires in December 2006 while the other contract expires in November 2007.

NOTE 6. INCOME TAXES

As of September 30, 2006, the Company had net operating losses available for carryforward of approximately $2,000,000. These loss carryforwards expire through the year 2025.

Independent Auditor's Report on Internal Control
Required by Rule 17a-5 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL REQUIRED BY RULE 17a-5 OF
THE SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934

To the Board of Directors and Stockholder of
ASD Financial Services Corp.
(A Wholly-Owned Subsidiary of American Brokerage & Investment Group, Inc.)

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements and supplementary information of ASD Financial Services Corp. (A Wholly-Owned Subsidiary of American Brokerage & Investment Group, Inc.) (the "Company") for the year ended September 30, 2006, we considered its internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on internal control.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities Exchange Commission (SEC), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness (or aggregate debits) and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons
2. Recordation of differences required by Rule 17a-13
3. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in internal control that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that error or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at September 30, 2006, to meet the SEC's objectives. This report recognizes that it is not practical in an organization the size of ASD Financial Services Corp. to achieve all the segregations of duties and cross-checks generally included in a system of internal control and that alternatively greater reliance must be placed on surveillance by management.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors, management, the Securities and Exchange Commission, the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., and other regulatory agencies which rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
